SERMON.

MATT. xviii. 14.

It is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

IN these words we have a declaration of the great mercy of God towards his fallen creatures,—the Gospel message,—a message of great joy to all who can be brought to receive it. We look around us in the world, and we see great misery; many persons suffering under distressing temporal wants; many in a state of wretched degradation of mind, living “without God in the world,” following just that course along which their own sinful nature urges them, and consequently exposed to all the wretchedness, and slaves to all the vices, to which the unrestrained inclination of man will naturally lead. We need not go far to find examples of this. Every street supplies us with a melancholy proof of its truth. There is a mass of misery and of vice sufficient to appal the heart of every one who is anxious for the good of his fellow-creatures.

Yet, in the very worst, and in the very lowest of the abodes of wretchedness and poverty, there is not one soul for whom Christ died not; not one soul but is immortal; not one but must “stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.” But it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one of the least of those whom He has created should perish.

Whence, then, arises all this misery? Does God see it? And can it be,—in a world which He has created, and among creatures which He designed for happiness? It is even so! And it is for this reason: men do not seek to obey God; they do not follow his directions, they do not listen to his offers of mercy, they do not accept the means by which they might be rescued from sin, and from all its fatal consequences. It was man's first disobedience which brought man's first sorrow. It is that sinful nature inherited by man which leads him to a dislike of God, and of his ways; and thus we actually find that those who are wholly neglected in their youth do naturally live in a state of utter disregard of all that is holy and good, and, if their temptations lie in that way, in habits of the most dreadful profaneness, and profligacy, and dishonesty.

What a sacred duty, then, does it become for such as know the blessings of Christ's religion to exert their utmost energies for the rescue of those who are on the very brink of everlasting ruin. And how are they to be rescued? How are they to be drawn away from their danger, and brought into a path of safety? Putting this question in its lowest sense, its mere worldly sense, how are they to be brought into the common intercourse of society, taking their place amongst the honest of their own rank, industriously seeking their own support, to their own comfort and the good of others, instead of leading the life which they now lead, dangerous and destructive to themselves, ever on the watch for opportunities of supplying their wants by dishonest means, and giving occasion for constant vigilance to guard against the dangers to which society is exposed by those who know no check but the terror of the laws, and no control but such as is very imperfectly supplied by the dread of punishment?

Our serious consideration cannot be applied to a more important question than as to the method most likely to rescue those outcasts of society from their present wretched state. The question is of importance as it concerns merely the peace and security of the honest and orderly part of society; it is of infinite importance when it is considered in relation to the eternal welfare of those for whom Christ died, and of whom it is not the will of our Father which is in heaven that a single one should perish. Is there no course of education that can be contrived which shall draw some of these unhappy creatures from their present course, and show them the benefit of order, and diligence, and patient industry? But this is the lowest benefit; yet it is a benefit; and it must grieve the heart of every philanthropist to see what numbers there are who have no share in this benefit.

But the case is more deeply afflicting when we think of these as immortal beings, as those who are born in a Christian land, and have a right to be brought up as Christians; to be taught what Christ has done for them and suffered for them; to be shown that a way is opened for them to everlasting happiness, if they will walk in that way; that the Spirit is at hand to lead them, if they will follow his guidance; and that they must follow his guidance if they would be prepared for everlasting life. It is most sickening to the heart to know that there are such numbers who are never brought into the way of seeking for heavenly help, and of walking in the light of Christian truth, and of learning the blessedness of obedience to God's laws, and of good will to man,—and who are consequently ignorant of a Christian's happiness on earth, and of his hopes of happiness in heaven.

The children before us are, through God's mercy, placed in a condition to receive Christian instruction; to hear the gracious message of salvation through Christ; to learn the way in which Christ has commanded them to walk, and to look forward to that blessed kingdom which their Saviour has purchased for them, and where He is gone to prepare a place for those who look to Him as their Saviour, and who are seeking to follow Him as their guide.

It must be never out of our minds, as Christians, for our consolation, for our encouragement, and for our instruction, that Christ our Saviour died as a ransom for our sins; that, through his merits and his mediation, a door of salvation is opened to every one of us, and that He calls us to enter through that door; He calls upon us to “come unto Him;” and, with this call, He gives us this assurance, that “whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish, but shall have everlasting life¹.” This is, in truth, the message and the rule of the Gospel: here is the Love of God, and here is the Will of God. It is the will of God that none should perish, “but that all should come to everlasting life.” “It is not the will of our Father which is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.”

And we trust that we are acting according to the will of God, when we are training up these children in the fear and nurture of the Lord; when we show them to whom they are to look for salvation, and lead them to pursue the course which their Saviour has appointed them to walk in, and teach them to prepare for that kingdom which is the inheritance, through Christ, of all his faithful followers.

It is on a Christian education alone that we can expect God's blessing, or expect to see our hopes realized, in that pious and pure state of the mind, and that moral discipline of the manners, which it is our desire to see in these objects of our care. All education, in all ranks, should be such as shall draw the heart to God, and shall fix the eye on that heavenly inheritance which awaits all the faithful followers of Christ: and we may well believe that it is for want of this that we see so low an estimate of Christian morals prevailing throughout all classes of society.

I am not speaking in the common style of disparagement of the present age in comparison of the ages that are passed; for, alas! the remark has been too true in all ages. And I moreover believe, that there are among all classes, in the present day, some, I trust many, who are sincere in their faith, and devout in their lives; and it might be difficult to point to any time in the history of our own country, when the desire to promote the good of their fellow-creatures has been more shown, and more practically brought into operation, than in our own days. Still I fear, that in all classes there is a vast multitude untouched by the power of Gospel truth, and uninfluenced in their conduct by Gospel motives and Gospel rules. Surely there is a call upon us to give our deepest consideration to the question, how we may best apply ourselves to see that education does its part towards producing a Christian character, by showing the deep responsibilities connected with the Christian name.

It is not needful to disparage that course of education which tends to the refinement of the mind, and which, by engendering habits of diligence, and thought, and study, draws the mind from coarse and grovelling pursuits, and adds much to the happiness of man in his social or his private character. We need not speak against such a system of education as may teach our students the value of order and discipline, and soberness and uprightness, and lead them to thoughtfulness and reflection, and to careful investigation, and diligent exercise of their talents; and which may enable them to maintain with credit their condition in life,—or to better it. None of this is contrary to religion, or of necessity excludes it.

But if this be all; if no care be taken to provide Christian instruction, we cannot be surprised that there is no progress in Christian holiness, or in Christian morals. We must seek to educate the children committed to our charge “in the fear and nurture of the Lord;” and then, when the principle of duty to Him, and love to Him, is implanted in the heart, we may then expect to see the result of such teaching in the improvement of their characters as citizens, and subjects, and members of society—a happy result of Christian teaching, though not the great object which we aim at.

These children are immortal beings, they are the heirs of everlasting happiness, or destined to receive the wages of sin—everlasting misery: and this, as far as we can judge, and on which consideration we are therefore bound to act, will depend on the way in which they are “trained up;” for it is in that way which we must expect and believe that they will go. We believe, then, that we are acting according to the will of God, when we are seeking to instruct these children in the knowledge of Him. We believe, that, when we are teaching them according to the doctrines of our Church, we are teaching them according to the doctrines of the Gospel.

We do not mean that it is merely teaching them the creeds and doctrines of our Church; or, that it is even teaching them to read the Bible itself, which constitutes a Christian education. There may be much knowledge of these things—a very correct acquaintance with the history of the Bible, and of our Church, with very little progress in real godliness, and with very little Christian affection in the heart. We have seen a great deal of what may be called the discipline of education, which is to be much admired for its order, and its action, and its many good and useful results for the benefit of those who have been under such instruction. But there is often much knowledge, much even of Scripture knowledge, without any of that spirit of holiness, and humbleness, and meekness, and purity, which marks the character of those who are taught of God, and are walking as children of God. The whole education should be carried on with a view to the eternal interests of the objects of its care. Their conduct, their manners, their whole behaviour should be watched with a view to their eternal good. Whatever may be the books which they are reading, a right turn will be given to their studies by an instructor, who himself knows the real nature of the Gospel of Christ, and who is fully possessed with a sense of his own responsibility to God, for the way in which he trains up the children committed to his charge.

And, perhaps, there is no subject connected with education, which more requires the serious attention of the friends of the poor, than that which relates to the character of their instructors; not merely as to their talents, and acquirements, and diligence, but as to their characters as Christians. We may expect much good from the attention which has of late been given to the training and instructing of the masters and mistresses of our national schools. The diligent care and superintendence of the parish minister is, indeed, of essential importance; but even with this care, so much depends on the person who is all the day with the pupils, that we may expect the school to go on well, or ill, according to the character of the master. And experience, I think, will generally be found to correspond with this expectation.

On an occasion like the present, it cannot be supposed that there is time or opportunity to enter fully on those great considerations which relate to the education of the young; there is, however, no subject of greater importance to the good of our fellow-creatures, both as to their happiness in this world, and their hopes of the next. And if this work of education is carried on in the faith and fear of God, and with a desire to enlarge his kingdom upon earth, and to prepare subjects for his kingdom in heaven, we may look forward with cheerful reliance on his gracious promises of support, and may humbly hope for his blessing on our labours and our prayers.

REPORT

OF THE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

1845.

THIS Society again finds occasion, on the annual review of its transactions, to render thanks to Almighty God, who has permitted it, for nearly a century and a half, to take a share in advancing the knowledge of Christ, and of his revealed word.

The details furnished below of the exertions of the Society, since the publication of last year's Report, extending, as these have done, to almost every part of the globe, will serve to show that the Institution has endeavoured during the past year to fulfil, as heretofore, the religious intentions of its founders.

It was announced at the General Meeting in May that Her Majesty, who has for some years been the Patron of the Society, had graciously signified her approval of its objects and proceedings, by presenting a donation of One hundred guineas towards its funds.

The total number of Books and Tracts circulated since the last Annual Report has amounted to THREE MILLIONS, NINE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND, NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-TWO, viz., Bibles 118,148; New Testaments 101,385; and Prayer-Books 283,985; other bound Books and Tracts 507,707; unbound Tracts 2,934,697. This exhibits an addition of 170,546 to the total of last year; there having been a considerable increase in the issue of Bibles, Common-Prayer-Books, and bound Books.

The Sale of Books and Tracts in the Retail Department of the Depository has amounted during the year to the sum of 12,550*l.* 2*s.*, there being a small increase above the sale of 1844.

It having been thought desirable for the general interests of the Society, and the convenience of Members resident in the eastern parts of the metropolis, to establish a Branch Depository in the City, an office has been taken, No. 4, on the south side of the Royal Exchange, to the west of the Cornhill entrance, for the sale of the Society's publications, and for the receipt of subscriptions and donations.

It was stated in the Report for the year 1841, that arrangements had been made by which a room was appropriated in the Society's premises for the sale of School materials. During the past year the Committee of the National Society have resolved to establish a Depository for this purpose on their premises in the Sanctuary, Westminster.

It is added in the National Society's Report :

"This resolution has been formed after communication with the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, which has hitherto supplied these articles. That Society approves the measures of your Committee, and has determined, in accordance with the above resolution, to relinquish the sale of school apparatus and stationery. A depository of this kind, in immediate connexion with the Society, and under the constant supervision of its Committee, has long been felt to be a desideratum."

The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge will therefore continue to supply these articles but for a short time longer. All applications must thenceforth be made to the National Society.

At the General Meeting in May the following Members of the Society were elected to form the Tract Committee:—

The Lord Bishop of Lichfield,

The Rev. Thos. Ainger,

Rev. C. B. Dalton,

Ven. Archdeacon Dealtry,
Rev. Dr. Jelf,

Rev. J. Endell Tyler,

Rev. J. G. Ward.

The attention of the Tract Committee having been drawn to certain omissions in Bishop Cosin's 'Differences,' &c., as printed as an Appendix in the Society's edition of Bishop Bull's 'Corruptions of the Church of Rome,' reported to the Board, at the General Meeting in November, as follows :

"This Appendix, in its present form, together with Bishop Bull's work, was recommended, in the year 1836, by the Tract Committee to the Board, when it was ballotted for and duly adopted.

"Under these circumstances, as some of the omitted passages are of considerable importance, the Tract Committee do not think it right to substitute for the present Appendix, the paper as originally written by Bishop Cosin. At the same time they cannot continue to sanction the circulation of the Appendix in its present incorrect and imperfect form.

"The Tract Committee, therefore, having considered the subject, have thought it best that Bishop Bull's work be in future issued without the Appendix."

The Standing Committee having been requested, at the General Meeting in December, to inquire into the circumstances attending the omission of the Preface in a work which had been long on the Society's list,—Archbishop Wake's Commentary on the Church Catechism,—made the following Report at the January meeting:—

"The Standing Committee report to the Board, that they have, in pursuance of the reference made to them at the last General Meeting, inquired into the circumstances attending the omission of the Preface in the Society's edition of Archbishop Wake's Commentary on the Church Catechism. And they have ascertained that this work was published by the Society in the state in which it is now issued, namely, without the Prefatory Address to the Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, nineteen years since, under the direction of the then Committee of Revision.

"The Address appears in the 15th edition, published in 1821, and is first omitted in the 16th edition of 1826.

"The Standing Committee, after the inquiries which they have made, are satisfied that the Address was advisedly omitted, in conformity with a practice which, it appears, the Committee of Revision at that time judged it right, in some instances, to adopt, in regard to prefatory matter, which was thought to detract from the general usefulness of a work."

A Memorial received from the Wootton-under-Edge District Committee on the subject of alterations in the works of deceased authors on the Society's permanent Catalogue was read to the Board at the December meeting, and referred to the Standing Committee.

The following Books and Tracts have been placed by the Committee on the Permanent Catalogue since the publication of the last Annual Report:—

- 631. Introduction to the Study of the Prayer-Book. Cloth, 4d.

By the Report of the Foreign Translation Committee (Appendix, page 39), it appears that the translation of the Liturgy into the German language is nearly completed¹; and that the Portuguese version of the Liturgy is in type as far as the beginning of the Psalms.

The revision of the French version of the Liturgy is stated to be all but finished; the greater portion of the book having been printed.

The Maltese version is stated by the Bishop of Gibraltar to be completed and printed to the end of the Communion Service.

The Committee have undertaken, at the request of the Bishop of New Zealand, to publish a version of the Liturgy in the New Zealand language.

They have been solicited to print a translation of the Prayer-Book into the language of the Ogybwa Indians; and they will undertake this work, should the Bishop of Toronto give his sanction to it.

A special Committee has been appointed at Bombay, for the purpose of preparing translations of the Scriptures and Liturgy into the vernacular languages of Western India.

With respect to the efforts in Southern India, it appears that the late extraordinary movement in the Tinnevely district has occasioned a large demand for the Tamil Common Prayer-Book, and that the Foreign Translation Committee have assisted in the publication of a large impression of that work.

At the General Meeting in July, the sum of One Thousand Pounds was voted by the Board for the purposes of the Foreign Translation Committee.

Books for the Performance of Divine Service have been granted during the year for the following new Churches and Chapels:—

Grants from the fund of Clericus :

Barracks and Military Hospital, Nottingham.

Dr. Browning, for the Military Guard in a Convict-ship.

Fifty Bibles and Fifty Common Prayer-Books for the use of the Second Battalion of Grenadier Guards quartered in the Tower of London.

For Pensioners in the Liverpool District, on the application of Captain Greig.

For the use of Marines and others on board H. M. S. "Collingwood."

For the use of Marines and others on board Her Majesty's Steam-ship "Eclair."

For the use of Marines and others on board Her Majesty's Ship "Eagle."

Her Majesty's Ship "Comus," for the use of Marines and others.

The following may be noticed among the special grants:—

The sum of Fifty Pounds from Mrs. Negus's Welsh fund, towards the publication of a new edition of the book of Homilies in Welsh, undertaken by the Rev. M. Williams, of Bangor, with the sanction of the Bishops of Bangor, St. Asaph, and St. David's. Mr. Williams informed the Society, that pecuniary aid had been afforded towards the publication of this work, with the view of enabling the editor to publish it at such a price, as would place it within the reach of the middling and humbler classes of the Welsh Church people.

The sum of 110*l.* from Mrs. Negus's fund for Rotherhithe, towards building school-rooms for the Girls' school of industry, and for the purposes of schools in that parish.

250 Common Prayer-Books in the Irish language, for the use of the Irish Society.

Books from both Catalogues for the use of the expedition which was about to proceed on a voyage of discovery to the Arctic regions, in Her Majesty's ships "Erebus" and "Terror," commanded by Captain Sir John Franklin.

A grant of Books and Tracts for the use of the crews of colliers, and other vessels frequenting the Port of London.

Grants of Bibles, Prayer-Books, Books, and Tracts, for the use of boatmen on canals in Staffordshire, and in other parts of the country. The applicant in one of these cases said;

"It is very gratifying to know that boatmen value the Book of Common Prayer very highly; and I am sure that many of these poor people now seek opportunities for attending church, who did not reverence the sanctuary of the Most High before the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge provided them with suitable books. Many of the poor men know that they are deeply indebted to the Society."

Several grants of Books and Tracts for the use of railroad labourers on various lines.

Measures have been taken, by direction of the Standing Committee, for encouraging the circulation of the Society's books and tracts among men employed on railroads. The publications will be supplied, on the application of Chaplains or other authorized persons, at the union price.

INDIA.

CALCUTTA.

A FIFTH sum of one thousand pounds was forwarded to the Lord Bishop of Calcutta on the 1st of February, 1845, it being the last instalment of the sum of five thousand pounds voted by the Society, in 1839, towards the erection and endowment of the Cathedral of Calcutta.

A letter from his Lordship, addressed to the Society, and dated "Steamer Precursor, on voyage to Suez, Tuesday, May 6, 1845," was laid before the Board at the General Meeting in July. Large extracts were printed in the Report for that month. The Bishop said:—

"The Almighty has been pleased to lay his fatherly chastisement upon me, and I am coming home on the Furlough Act of 1842, for the recovery of my health; and surely I have reason to bless his holy name, that I am not leaving my diocese till after I have entered the fourteenth year of my consecration, and have nearly completed the sixty-seventh of my age.

"I have also great reason to be thankful that my strength has been gradually increased since my third and most alarming seizure last January, near Delhi; and that I have been enabled to hold confirmations, to ordain, to consecrate Churches and Burial-grounds, to see and advise individually my Clergy, and to give counsel to Missionaries and Chaplains; so that nothing of the essential functions of my holy office has been omitted in my coming down to the metropolis.

"The encouragement the venerable Society has given to Church building in India by several grants of 500*l.* in the early years of my residence, and by the munificent donation of 1000*l.* for each of five years, to St. Paul's Cathedral, Calcutta, the last of which I have just received, has resulted in a general spirit for erecting sacred edifices in this diocese. We have now between eighty and ninety Churches; and I suppose that when Bishop Middleton came out in 1814, there could not be more than four or five.

"And here let me return to the venerable Society my best thanks for their fifth and last Annual Contribution of 1000*l.*, half of which five donations has been invested for the Endowment Fund. The other half (2500*l.*) has been devoted to the buildings. This gift of 5000*l.*, the similar grant of the venerable Society for Propagating the Gospel, for founding a Native Canonry, of 5000*l.*, and a donation of 4000*l.* by a relative of the late Rev. John Natt, Vicar of St. Sepulchre's, have been the largest contributions yet made, but not the last, as I trust; for many, many friends, who have been connected with India, will doubtless remember St. Paul's, Calcutta, in their wills."

Since the receipt of this letter the Bishop of Calcutta has arrived in England. It is hoped that his health may, by God's blessing, be restored, and that his Lordship may be enabled to return to his diocese, to fulfil his earnest wish of consecrating the Cathedral of Calcutta.

MADRAS.

The Lord Bishop of Madras has been in frequent correspondence with the Society during the past year. His Lordship, in a letter dated Bishopstoke, May 7, 1844, which was read to the Board in November, furnished many interesting particulars of his visitation tour through part of the Western portion of his Diocese. He said,

“ I am now endeavouring to recruit my almost spent strength with a little comparative rest, in the hope (God permitting) of going down to Madras early in October. I long to be there, because much very important work awaits me there ; but in the mean time we are greatly increasing the circulation throughout the country of our Society's tracts, both against Popery, and in defence of the Church of England ; and I keep up an active correspondence on all matters connected with its operations in my Diocese, with the energetic and able Secretary of our Diocesan Committee, the Rev. Vincent Shortland ; and I am most thankful to be able to assure you that the Society's labour in this Diocese is not in vain in the Lord, as we have reason to know that good has been done, and is being done, and to hope that much more will be done, if we continue to work together, as we do now, in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, which I earnestly pray for, and confidently look for.”

The Bishop has since forwarded a printed copy of his Journal for the Society's acceptance.

The accounts from the Tinnevely Mission, an important sphere of the former Missionary exertions of the Society, have been increasingly interesting. No fewer than 5000 persons have embraced Christianity in the course of the past year ; and it may still be said, “ The fields are yet white unto the harvest.”

The Rev. Vincent Shortland, in a letter received early in 1845, said,

“ Nearly 2000 persons in the Nazareth district have recently given up their temples and idols, and placed themselves under Christian instruction, and among these are many who have hitherto been violently opposed to Christianity, but are now constrained to feel that there is a Divine power connected with it, and I trust, through grace, are brought to realize the all-important inquiry of the apostle, ‘ Lord, what wilt thou have us to do ?’

“ I cannot speak too strongly of the extreme importance of our receiving all the assistance which can possibly be rendered to us from England, at this eventful crisis in the history of the missions in Southern India.”

In a letter subsequently received, Mr. Shortland writes:—

“The interest of past years, extending back far into the 18th century, cannot but be revived by the glad tidings of the work now in progress in that highly favoured spot. God is greatly blessing the means used both in the Seminary and Schools supported by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and in the direct missionary labour in connexion with the Incorporated Society.

“The last communication I have received from Tinnevely, under date December 31, says, ‘I have just had another large devil temple given up, and to-day I expect the idols, gold and silver coins, &c. (appended or attached to them), to be delivered to me.’”

He forwarded by the same conveyance a copy of a letter which the Madras Diocesan Committee had received from the Rev. A. F. Cæmmerer, intreating assistance to build a Church at Mukupury, in the Nazareth district. Mr. Cæmmerer stated, that he had been much encouraged and pleased with the desire manifested by the people to improve in religious knowledge, as well as with their regular attendance on the means of grace. At the ordinary morning and evening prayers, the present building is filled; but on Sundays and Festival days, numbers crowd at the doors, while others are obliged to sit or stand out of doors, during Divine Service. The congregation have contributed materials and money towards a new church; but means being required for the completion of the fabric, the Madras Committee requested of the Society a grant of not less than 80%. (or 800 rupees) towards the object.

It appeared by a letter from the Bishop of Madras to Mr. Shortland, that his Lordship had assigned 500 rupees for the erection of this church, from the sum of 200%. recently placed at his disposal by the Society; his object being to secure a permanent building, larger than the present wants of the people. He said, in reference to this subject:

“In the present spiritual state of Tinnevely, we may reasonably build churches for much larger congregations than we at present possess.”

The Board agreed, at the general Meeting in March, to grant 80%. towards the church at Mukupury.

In a subsequent letter, dated April 12th, 1845, Mr. Shortland says:—

“You will be glad to hear there is every reason to hope, that the movement in favour of Christianity in the Tinnevely Missions of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel is extending northward; so that, had we but Missionaries to enter in at the effectual door thus wonderfully opened to us, we might hope to see a second Tinnevely springing up in some of the adjoining districts.

“Never was there a period when a few faithful and devoted missionaries were more urgently required; and I anxiously pray they will be raised up to proclaim to these awakening heathens the unsearchable riches of Christ."

The Board, on the recommendation of the Standing Committee, agreed to place at the disposal of the Madras Committee the sum of 150*l.* towards the purpose of church-building in the district of Tinnevely.

The annual supply of missionary stores granted by the Society has been sent in the course of the year to Madras, to the amount of 850*l.*

The Bishop has acknowledged the Society's grant of 150*l.* towards the expense incurred by the Madras Diocesan Committee in publishing a new version of the Tamil Common Prayer-Book.

His Lordship has drawn for the sum of 60*l.*, voted in 1842, towards the building of a Chapel at Pondicherry, near Cuddalore; the obstacles which have so long existed to its erection being now happily removed, and a sum subscribed in India sufficient to meet the Society's grant.

Mr. Shortland, in transmitting the thanks of the Madras Committee, for the grant towards the revised version of the Common Prayer-Book in Tamil, gave the following pleasing information with regard to this work:—

"You will be glad to hear that 10,000 copies, 12mo, of those portions of this work, the revision of which is completed, including the Morning and Evening Services, the Litany, the Collects, and a part of the Communion Service, have been despatched to the Tinnevely Book Society, so that the whole of the missions in that highly-favoured province will be so far abundantly supplied, and we shall proceed with the 8vo edition of the complete Book of Common Prayer with as much expedition as possible."

BOMBAY.

A letter has been received from the Lord Bishop of Bombay, of which the following are extracts:—

"I send a list of Books which are very much required by the Rev. G. Candy, Superintendent of the school of the Indo-British Mission in Bombay, towards the erection of whose buildings the venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge made so liberal a contribution about five years ago. The experience of the Society's great liberality emboldens me to appeal to it again. The boys' and girls' schools are now in full operation, and are affording Christian instruction to many destitute children, who, without them, must have remained in ignorance. When I saw the schools before the Monsoon, there were eighty boys and forty-five girls in them: their progress was generally satisfactory.

"Since the establishment of the Indo-British Mission School, it has been a comfortable reflection that (with our present European and Indo-British population) no child need now be without Christian education in this diocese."

The Board placed the books specified, amounting to 30*l.*, at the Bishop's disposal.

Books from the fund of Clericus have been placed at the disposal of the Rev. I. N. Allen, Assistant Chaplain, Deesa, Bombay, for the use of soldiers and their children.

CEYLON.

Since the publication of the last Annual Report, the erection of Colombo into a Bishopric has taken place, the Right Rev. Dr. James Chapman having been consecrated Bishop of that See at Lambeth, on the 4th of May, 1845.

The Board, wishing to aid the Bishop in the labours of his sacred office, and to promote the Society's objects in Ceylon by his means, agreed at the General Meeting on the 6th of May, 1845, to place at his disposal the sum of Three hundred pounds. His Lordship was present at the General Meeting in June, and acknowledged this grant.

On the application of the Rev. E. Mooyaart, Secretary to the Kandy Committee, Ceylon, books have been granted to the value of 20*l.*, for the purposes of that Committee.

The Rev. S. W. Dias, Chaplain at Colombo, applied for a grant of books towards the augmentation of a Lending Library in that city. He stated, that this library had originally been formed for the use of the clergy, and that measures had lately been adopted to extend its usefulness to the inhabitants generally. It appeared, also, that many troops were stationed in Colombo, to whom a supply of the Society's publications, including some selected from the Supplemental Catalogue, would be acceptable. The Bishop of Colombo having recommended this application, books from both catalogues to the value of 15*l.* were granted, including a portion from the fund of Clericus.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

THE Rev. Brownlow Maitland, Secretary to the Cape of Good Hope District Committee, has informed the Society that measures are in progress for establishing a Boys' Day School, in connexion with St. George's Church, Cape Town, and requested a grant of books for the purposes of the school. These were granted to the value of 10*l.*

Twenty-five copies of the Dutch Common Prayer-Books, for the convict stations in that Colony, have also been granted, on Mr. Maitland's application.

Books and Tracts have been voted for distribution at George Town.

The Rev. F. H. Rankin, Colonial and Garrison Chaplain, at Bathurst, Garabia, has acknowledged a grant of books placed at his disposal in June, 1844, and requested assistance towards fitting up a place of worship at Bathurst.

The sum of 15*l.* has been granted for this purpose.

Bibles and Prayer-Books, and books for Schools, partly from the fund of Clericus, have been granted on his application.

ST. HELENA.

THE Rev. R. Kempthorne, Colonial Chaplain of St. Helena, having requested assistance from the Board, towards replenishing his stock of books, which he stated to be nearly exhausted, books were granted to the value of 5*l.*

Mr. Kempthorne had transmitted the same amount as a donation from some friends of the Society in the island.

A grant of books to the value of 10*l.*, partly from the fund of Clericus, has been voted on the application of Major Hancock, for the use of a school and of troops in St. Helena.

THE MAURITIUS:

THE Rev. A. Denny has forwarded the Seventh Annual Report of the Mauritius District Committee, by which it appeared that exertions are making by the friends of the Church in the Colony for the moral and religious improvement of the Hill Coolies, forty thousand of whom have been introduced into the Mauritius from India during the year.

It is stated in the Report that the Committee propose to allot 25*l.* per annum of their funds, or an equal amount to be specially raised for that purpose, to the support of a native student, who has been granted a place on the foundation of Bishop's College, Calcutta, with the view of missionary employment, more particularly with reference to the Hill Coolies.

Mr. Denny says in his letter to the Secretary,

“Whether the Society may find itself at liberty to grant us any pecuniary aid, in our endeavours to evangelize the Coolie emigrants, I submit wholly to their wisdom and Christian feeling in such a cause; being assured that they will approve of the part taken by the Committee, as a beginning in this pious and necessary work.”

The sum of 50*l.* has been placed at the disposal of the Mauritius District Committee, for promoting the Society's designs in the Colony, and especially towards the conversion of the Hill Coolies.

Three dozen French Common Prayer-Books have been granted for the use of the French congregation at Port Louis.

AUSTRALIA.

THE Lord Bishop of Australia, in a letter dated 2nd March, 1844, gave a very favourable account of the progress of the St. James's Grammar School, Sydney; the number of scholars, now eighty, being continually on the increase, and their progress highly satisfactory. His Lordship added:—

“I have to render thanks to the Society for its liberality in acquiescing in the frequent applications for pecuniary aid on behalf of various objects of charity and devotion. The number of prisoners in gangs is now so much diminished, that I believe a grant of 100*l.*, to be drawn for in two bills of 50*l.* each, will suffice to meet that expenditure during the present year.”

The Board agreed that 100*l.* should be granted accordingly.

The Bishop, in a subsequent letter, acknowledged the sum of 250*l.*, which had been placed at his disposal by an unknown benefactor, by whom it had been paid, through the Rev. B. Harrison, into the hands of the Society. His Lordship stated that he had appropriated this amount, in three several sums, towards the erection of two school-houses in Sydney, and one in Melbourne, Port Philip.

The Bishop forwarded 160*l.* for the purchase of books for the use of the parochial and infant schools, and 40*l.* for the purchase of Bibles and Prayer-Books, for sale at a reduced rate, or for gratuitous distribution. He said:

“It will be satisfactory to the Society to learn, that under all the severe pecuniary embarrassments of the colony during the last few years, the prosperity of our schools throughout the colony has not been in any degree interrupted. In Sydney alone we have at least 1400 children under instruction in schools superintended by the clergy; and whenever we can provide means to open an additional school in the town or suburbs it is instantly filled.”

It was agreed to send to the Bishop, in addition to the books for which payment had been forwarded, a gratuitous supply of Bibles, Prayer-Books, and books and tracts, to the value of 50*l.*

The wants of Trinity Church, Adelaide, South Australia, have been brought under the notice of the Society. It appeared by letters from Captain Grey, the Governor of the Colony, and from the Rev. Mr. Farrell, that the Church was in a state requiring considerable repair, and that, notwithstanding the exertions made by the inhabitants, further means were required for the restoration of the fabric.

It was stated that there are between 17,000 and 18,000 inhabitants in South Australia, of whom about 7000 reside in Adelaide, and that the members of the Church of England very much exceed the whole number of dissenters.

It was agreed to grant 150*l.* towards Trinity Church.

The Rev. J. R. Wollaston, visiting Minister of the settlers resident in the district of the Vasse, Western Australia, and the Trustees of the church of Busselton, in that district, informed the Board that this church, towards the erection of which 230*l.* 11*s.* had last year passed through the Society's hands, was nearly finished. Some aid having been requested towards its completion, the sum of 20*l.* was voted for this purpose.

Quarto books were granted for the performance of Divine Service in the new church of Denbigh, near Camden.

TASMANIA.

THE Venerable F. A. Marriott, Archdeacon of Hobart Town, who has lately been in England, requested, with the sanction and approval of the Bishop, some assistance towards the erection and endowment of a Collegiate Institution in Tasmania. The Archdeacon inclosed a list of subscriptions which had been promised.

The following Proposal, forwarded with this application, was read to the Meeting in June:

"1. The British Government, five years since, entertained the design of establishing a College in Tasmania, to be supported by public funds; and proceeded so far as to send out the Rev. J. P. Gell, M. A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, to organize such an Institution: but so many difficulties appeared to stand in the way of any attempt to found a College, in the constitution of which different bodies of Christians claimed to have a voice, that the Government has abandoned the project.

"2. The Bishop, therefore, is compelled to call upon the Church for its aid in providing an Institution, without which her members in Tasmania will be deprived of those advantages of Christian training, and instruction in learning, which in the mother-country are derived from colleges and foundation-schools, under the government of the Church, and consequently subject to Episcopal visitation; and Mr. Gell has consented to remain in the Colony till the end of 1845, to see what may be the result of the Bishop's appeal.

"3. The design is one on which no ordinary degree of attention and labour has been bestowed by many persons in England and Tasmania; some valuable donations have already been made, and more have been promised : but in the present time of great agricultural and commercial distress in the Colony, pecuniary aid from England is needed to found a collegiate body on the smallest scale, with security for its permanence.

“ 4. It is calculated that 5000*l.* raised in England may, together with landed and other endowments in the Colony, produce such an annual income as will enable the Bishop to proceed at once to organize the College; as the payments of the pupils will supply what may further be needed, for obtaining the lease of suitable premises, for the general expenses of the Institution, and for the accumulation of a fund for the erection of College-buildings at some future time.

“ The Bishop will, with the advice and assistance of proper persons in the Colony, hereafter to be named, invest the funds; and the property will be held in trust for the College, and made over to it in the event of its being incorporated. And from the yearly income, provision will be made for the Warden and Fellows, and for Scholarships, Exhibitions, and other expenses.

“ 5. The Bishop deems this a design on which greatly depends the welfare of the Church in Tasmania, and he has appealed to his brethren in England for their sympathy and support: a Committee has been formed to render him assistance in the promotion of this good work, and they commend it most especially to those who, amid the ancient and hallowed institutions which we owe to our fathers, have received the blessing of a learned and Christian education, and may be glad, each according to his ability, to give support to his brethren and a thank-offering to God.”

At the general Meeting on the 1st July, it was agreed that the sum of five hundred pounds be granted towards a Collegiate Institution in Tasmania; the sum to be drawn for by the Lord Bishop of Tasmania so soon as 2500*l.* shall have been contributed from other quarters.

The Bishop of Tasmania, in a letter dated Hobart Town, January 8, 1845, said,

“ When I last wrote, I mentioned to you how desirable I considered it to build respectable and substantial school-houses, which might serve as temporary chapels on the Sunday, and which might still be useful, even when another generation found the means and felt the will to erect more costly buildings for the purpose of Divine worship.

“ I shall before long draw upon your Society, from the amount placed at my disposal, for sums that I have promised to more than one building of this description. In the meantime I beg to advise you, that I have, on the 6th instant, drawn upon your Treasurers for the sum of 50*l.*, in favour of the Rev. H. P. Fry, in aid of a chapel now building in Macquarie-street, in Hobart Town.”

A request having been forwarded by the Rev. H. P. Fry, for a Bible and Prayer-Book, for the performance of Divine Service in the Chapel above alluded to, the books were granted.

The following grants have been made.

Books for the use of the Schools at Launceston, on the application of the Rev. Dr. Browne, Secretary of the District Committee at Launceston.

Books for the use of the convicts, and the military guard placed over them, on board the "Theresa" convict ship, bound to Van Diemen's Land.

NEW ZEALAND.

AN important measure for the interests of religious education in this Colony, has recently been adopted by the Bishop of New Zealand, who, in a letter dated August 12, 1844, requested the Society's co-operation :

"The liberality of the Society in aiding the establishment of colleges in other dioceses, encourages me to hope, that some assistance may be granted towards the building of St. John's College, New Zealand. The nucleus of this Institution has already been formed in the buildings belonging to the Church Missionary Society at the Waimate, which I have occupied as my temporary residence ; but I feel more and more the importance of taking up a permanent position nearer to the seat of government. Should I be doing wrong in asking for a grant towards the purpose of building my College ? My Collegiate Institution at present contains—

Theological College	9 Students.
Collegiate School	15
Native Adult Teachers' School	10
Native Boys' School	22
Native Infants' School	35
Hospital (average)	8 Patients.

"The number of the Native Schools might be very considerably increased, if I had the means of maintaining them. The English language is taught in all the Native Schools ; a measure which has been rendered necessary by the colonization of the country. I intend to reside in the College myself, and take part in the duties, so that the expense of the establishment will be comparatively small. The first outlay on the buildings is the only point on which I feel any uneasiness."

It was agreed at the General Meeting in June, that the sum of five hundred pounds be placed at the disposal of the Bishop, towards the erection and endowment of St. John's College in New Zealand. It was further agreed, on the recommendation of the Committee, that the Bishop be authorized to draw this amount as soon as 2500*l.* shall have been raised for the College from other sources.

In a subsequent letter, the Bishop informed the Society that a site for the College had been purchased with a portion of the legacy of the late Rev. Thomas Whytehead; and that the works were in progress for a portion of the building. His Lordship added:—

“I feel every day the comfort of the large stock of Bibles and School-books supplied to me by the Society’s grant in 1841. I have just been occupied in looking over a set of books and lessons for a promising little Infant School of eighty children, which has been collected in Auckland during the past year. The other schools in this place, and in the other settlements, have all been supplied from the same source; as well as many outlying settlers, who are unable to send their children to school, but who may be enabled, by supplies of elementary books, to educate them at home.”

A syndicate composed of translators having been engaged in the Colony, under the Bishop’s direction, to revise the version of the Prayer-Book in the language of the natives of New Zealand, the Bishop has requested to be allowed to send the work to be printed in England, under the superintendence of the Foreign Translation Committee; the Rev. William Selwyn consenting, at the instance of his Lordship, and the request of the Committee, to correct the press. The Foreign Translation Committee, to whom this subject was referred, have undertaken the publication of the work.

With the concurrence of the Standing Committee, a book has been opened in the Society’s office for the receipt of subscriptions and donations towards the New Zealand Education Fund.

UPPER CANADA.—TORONTO.

THE Lord Bishop of Toronto has acknowledged the Society’s grant of 200*l.* towards rebuilding the church in the township at London. He said:—

“It has encouraged the congregation exceedingly. The clergyman, the Rev. Benjamin Cronyn, is delighted, and requests, in his own and his people’s name, to offer most sincere thanks.

“On the 20th I leave this for London, to lay the foundation-stone of the new church, which is to be double the size of the one unfortunately burnt, and to contain large accommodation for the poor. The ceremony is to take place on the 24th, the festival of St. John the Baptist, and all our people for many miles round are expected to assemble.”

The Bishop afterwards informed the Society, that he had laid the foundation-stone of this church in the presence of nearly 4000 people.

It will be seen by the following particulars, that much assistance has been rendered during the year towards promoting the Society’s purposes in the diocese of Toronto.

The Board has granted—

Towards a new church at Markham, on the application of the Rev. V. P. Mayerhoffer, Missionary of Markham and Vaughan, 50*l*.

Towards a new church at York, a village on the Grand River, at the request of the Rev. B. A. Hill, 15*l*.

Towards a new church at Kingston, on the application of the Rev. W. M. Herchmer, 25*l*.

Towards a new church at St. Alban's, on the application of the Rev. G. C. Street, 15*l*.

Towards a new church at Kemptville, on the application of the Rev. H. Patton, 20*l*.

Towards a small new church in the township of Trafalgar, in the mission of the Rev. G. W. Warr, 10*l*.

All the above cases were recommended by the Bishop to the favourable consideration of the Board; the applications having been accompanied by statements on the following points for the information of the Standing Committee.

1. The estimated cost of the building.
2. The sum collected and promised.
3. The number of worshippers the church is intended to receive.
4. The population of the parish or district.
5. The proportion of members of the Church.
6. The present state of the building.

Books for the performance of Divine Service have been granted for the use of the following churches in this Diocese:—

Lamaree settlement, Scarborough, on the application of the Rev. W. S. Darling.

Pittsburg, on the application of the Rev. W. M. Herchmer.

Three sets of books for the performance of Divine Service in the three churches at March and Huntly, on the application of General Lloyd, which was forwarded by the Bishop.

Books and tracts for schools, lending libraries, and distribution, have been granted as follow:—

For an Indian settlement, Red River.

For distribution in the Mission of Penatanguishine.

For the use of the inmates of the Penitentiary at Kingston; on the application of the Rev. R. V. Rogers.

For the mission of Cornwall, at the request of the Rev. Alexander Williams.

For Adelaide London district, in the mission of the Rev. A. Mortimer.

For Bishop Stewart's travelling Missionaries, on the application of W. C. Walters, Esq.

For Lamaree, Scarborough, and Pittsburg.

The Bishop has forwarded an address to the Society from the Clergy of the Diocese of Toronto, dated June 7, 1844, acknowledging the services rendered by the Institution to the Church in Canada.

The Rev. Saltern Givens, Missionary to the Mohawk Indians, Bay of Quinté, has written to thank the Society, on behalf of the Indians, for the donation of books, which arrived in good order, in October last.

MONTREAL.

THE Lord Bishop of Montreal has informed the Society that he has received, at different times, since his last communication, applications from places in his diocese where the clergy and people are engaged in undertakings which they want the means to complete, and that they turn for aid to those institutions from which so large a measure of support has been derived to the Church in the Colonies.

It appears that a Church Society has been formed within the diocese of Montreal; but the people in very many of the straggling Protestant settlements are stated to be exceedingly poor, their scattered condition greatly multiplying the demands for spiritual succour beyond the proportion of their numbers.

"We have," says the Bishop, "churches standing for years together unfinished, although, for the most part, in use, in a rough kind of style: people here and there who are as sheep without a shepherd: children without schools to go to, or schools without books for the scholars."

The Bishop having forwarded several applications with his approval, the following grants were made:—

Towards the erection of a church at Russell Town, on the application of the Rev. R. G. Plees, 15*l*.

Towards rebuilding a church at Dunham, on the application of the Rev. H. Evans, 20*l*.

Towards building a church at Terrebonne, in the mission of the Rev. Mr. Torrance, 25*l*.

Towards forming a Lending Library in the township of Inverness, at the request of Mr. R. G. Ward, Catechist, books to the value of 5*l*.

For a Sunday School Library at Sorel, in the mission of the Rev. W. Anderson, books to the value of 5*l*.

For the use of the troops stationed at Sorel, books from the fund of Clericus, 3*l*.

For distribution at Kingsey, in the mission of the Rev. J. Butler, books to the value of 5*l*.

For a Parochial Lending Library and Distribution at Clarendon, on the Ottawa, in the mission of the Rev. F. Neve, books to the value of 8*l*.

For a Lending Library and Distribution at Brome, on the application of the Rev. Jos. Scott, books to the value of 5*l*.

For reward books in a Sunday School, in the Rev. J. Pyke's mission at Vaudreuil, 5*l*.

The Bishop having allotted the last of the sets of books for the performance of Divine Service, which had been placed at his disposal, requested some additional sets for distribution.

Twelve quarto sets, each set consisting of a Bible, a Prayer-Book, and a book for the Communion Table, were granted for the purposes stated in the Bishop's letter.

NOVA SCOTIA.

LETTERS have been received from the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, dated July 2nd, and September 2nd, 1844, expressing a hope that the Society would again place at his disposal a grant towards promoting its objects in his diocese, the whole of the former grant having been expended. It also appeared that his Lordship had conditionally promised further aid in certain cases of need, and that he was anxious to fulfil these engagements.

The Board agreed, at the General Meeting in November, that Two hundred pounds be placed at the Bishop's disposal for the promotion of the Society's objects in his diocese.

His Lordship having subsequently brought under the notice of the Society the wants of several small churches which are in the course of building in remote settlements in his diocese, it was agreed at the January Meeting, that 50*l*. be granted in aid of the Bishop's designs in church-building.

Twelve large 8vo Bibles and twelve Prayer-Books were also granted for the performance of Divine Service in small churches in his diocese.

With reference to a grant annually made for some years past by the board, in aid of the Divinity Students at King's College, Windsor, the Bishop wrote as follows:—

“By the resolution of the Society in the last year, I am authorized to draw in the present year for no more than 100*l*. for scholarships at King's College. It would be an ungrateful return for past benefits of the highest value, to indulge regret when the circumstances of the Society render it necessary to diminish their bounty. I have thought it more becoming, and likely to be well regarded by the Society, to make every possible effort to raise a fund for meeting this very serious evil; and I have hope of some partial success.”

The sum of 100*l.* was granted towards the support of the Students at King's College, Windsor, for the present year.

In compliance with requests forwarded by the Bishop during the year, the following grants have been made:—

Towards the erection of a church at Tusket, on the application of the Rev. R. Avery, of Yarmouth, 25*l.*

Towards building a church at Rosswas, on Digby Neck, in the mission of the Rev. W. Bullock, 20*l.*

Towards a church in the parish of Horton, on the application of the Rev. J. Cornwallis, 20*l.*

Books for a Lending Library at Annapolis, in the mission of the Rev. E. Gilpin.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

THE Lord Bishop of Newfoundland wrote from St. John's on the 20th July, 1844, acknowledging the Society's grant of 500*l.* towards promoting its objects in his diocese. He afterwards, in a letter dated from Halifax, on his way to Bermuda, inclosed a report of the state and prospects of the cathedral about to be erected at St. John's, Newfoundland.

The Lord Bishop of Jamaica, in a letter dated Bishop's Lodge, Jamaica, 17th June, 1844, informed the Society, that he had transmitted to the Chairman of the Building Committee of the Cathedral at St. John's, Newfoundland, the necessary orders for the Bishop of Newfoundland to receive the sum of five hundred pounds granted by the Society towards the erection of the Cathedral; and that he had also sent the amount of two years' interest which had accrued thereon, making a total of 550*l.*

By the Report of the Cathedral Building Committee, it appeared that a favourable site had been obtained for the building, which it was hoped would be commenced in the spring of 1845. It is added:—

“A list of subscribers will be immediately published, showing both the amounts promised, and the sums actually paid up to this date in Newfoundland. The Committee beg to invite the particular attention of members of the Church in Newfoundland to the liberality of friends in England, and to tender to those friends their cordial and most grateful acknowledgments. The sum of 500*l.* sterling given by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, was reserved by the Lord Bishop of Jamaica (our then Diocesan), to be paid with interest, ‘only for the actual completion of the church;’ and the amount of that grant, with the interest thereon up to this time, is now in the hands of the Bishop of Newfoundland.

“The Committee have great pleasure in announcing, that the Lord Bishop of the diocese has engaged to contribute 1000*l.* sterling from the subscriptions of his friends in England, and 250*l.* on his own account,—to meet the same amounts subscribed and paid in Newfoundland,—or instalments of those sums, to meet equal instalments here. Several gentlemen of St. John's have offered to increase or continue their subscriptions beyond the amounts standing against their names."

The Rev. J. F. H. Bridge, Vicar-General and Commissary of Newfoundland, has transmitted 8*l.* 3*s.* 7*d.*, being the amount he had recently received from the sale at reduced prices of the last supply of Prayer-Books and Family Prayers consigned by the Society to his care.

BERMUDA.

THE Rev. Dr. Tucker, Secretary of the BERMUDA District Committee, has forwarded the twenty-fifth Annual Report of that branch, and acknowledged the box of books granted by the Society for the coloured people's library, and for the use of the troops stationed in the garrison.

He says,

"This grant could not have been made at a more seasonable moment. I was much in want of suitable reading for the military hospitals, our stock of books being, by fair wear and tear, entirely exhausted, and the local depository just now affording no means of replenishing it. I will only say, that it shall be my endeavour, with the Divine blessing, that in this, as well as in all other acts of their bounty, the great and holy ends of the Society may be effectually promoted."

FREDERICTON.

THE populous and important Colony of New Brunswick having been erected into an Episcopal see, by the appointment of the Right Rev. John Medley, D.D., to be Bishop of Frederickton, the Board agreed, at the General Meeting in May, to place at the disposal of the Bishop the sum of 300*l.* towards promoting the Society's purposes in his diocese.

The Bishop was present at the meeting, and acknowledged the grant.

The Bishop of Nova Scotia, in a letter dated Halifax, June 17, 1845, wrote as follows:—

"I am sure it will give joy to the Society to learn, and I am most happy in being able to forward the information, that nothing can be more gratifying than the impression which has been made by the excellent and able Bishop of Frederickton, both here and in his own diocese, where he has been most warmly received. He will have pressing occasion for the grant which has been kindly made to him by the Society."

The Ven. Archdeacon Coster has forwarded a bill of exchange for 300*l.* sterling, together with a list of books for the use of the Church Society of the Archdeaconry of New Brunswick, the cost of the books being 250*l.*, and added—

“It is the wish of the Church Society to place the remaining 50*l.* at the disposal of the Bishop of New Brunswick, who will draw upon you for that amount, and the Society will feel obliged by your honouring his draft. The Church Society are very thankful to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge for their kindness in supplying them at all times, and upon such liberal terms, with their valuable publications, which are highly esteemed by the members of the Church in all parts of the country, and are doing the Church essential service.”

A set of quarto books for the performance of Divine Service in the Church of St. George, New Brunswick, has been granted on the application of the Rev. S. Thomson.

WEST INDIES.

JAMAICA.

THE Lord Bishop of Jamaica, in a letter dated Jamaica, March 20th, 1845, said;—

“It is now more than nine weeks since I have left the Lodge, and within that period I have travelled nearly a thousand miles, and many of them on horseback. I have visited thirty-six churches, in all of which I have preached; held one ordination; consecrated sixteen places (either burial-grounds or churches); confirmed 5600 persons in thirty-three churches; examined some thousands of pupils; and transacted other business incident to the visitation. With the Legislative Grant intrusted to me, I have completed twenty churches, many of which I have consecrated, and all of which will have been consecrated before the end of the year. Of these I append a tabular statement which I transmit to the Committee.”

His Lordship having recommended an application made by the Rev. M. Newport, Rector of Belize, and Rural Dean of Honduras, for aid towards the erection of a church at Belize, Honduras, it was agreed that 25*l.* should be granted for this purpose.

BAHAMAS.

The Ven. Archdeacon Trew having informed the Society that a small church was about to be built in the island of Eleuthera, in the Archdeaconry of the Bahamas, towards which a grant from the Society would be of great service; and that a few pounds towards the erection of a chapel-school-house on the island of Grand Bahama would afford seasonable relief, the Board agreed to grant 25*l.* for the Church and School-House.

BARBADOS.

The Lord Bishop of Barbados has acquainted the Society with the manner in which he has applied the portion remaining in his hands of the grant placed at his Lordship's disposal in 1842. He stated that he had allotted 25*l.* towards fitting up a chapel-school in St. John's parish, Tobago, and 25*l.* towards the erection of a church at Beabon, Charlotte parish, St. Vincent's.

Books for the performance of Divine Service in the church of St. Matthias, Barbados, have been granted, on the application of the Rev. Mr. Richards.

Six sets of service books have been placed at the Bishop's disposal for newly-erected churches in his diocese.

ANTIGUA.

Communications have been received during the year from the Lord Bishop of Antigua, respecting his visitations, and the state of the Church in his Diocese.

The Venerable Robert Holberton, Archdeacon of Antigua, during his visit to England, stated that in his parish of St. John's, Antigua, there is an association of young men, who, by a small monthly subscription, are endeavouring to obtain for themselves works of useful knowledge, and of a religious tendency. The Bishop of the Diocese is the President. There being much difficulty in procuring suitable publications, the Archdeacon requested a grant of books and tracts, chiefly from the Supplemental Catalogue.

These were granted to the value of 10*l.*

The Archdeacon also requested a set of books, for the performance of Divine Service in each of the chapels of St. James and St. Luke in his parish of St. John, Antigua. He said ;

"These chapels, though injured, especially St. James's, by the earthquake, have been put into thorough order again, the congregation contributing Sunday after Sunday until that object was effected. In consideration, therefore, of the interesting congregations that have so long attended these two chapels, and the forwardness they have lately shown to repair, according to their means, the damage done to their places of worship by the desolating earthquake, I venture to prefer through you my humble request to the Board."

The Books required were granted.

Some small Prayer-Books were also placed at the Archdeacon's disposal.

GIBRALTAR.

THE Lord Bishop of Gibraltar, in a letter dated Nov. 15, 1844, informed the Society, that the consecration of the new church in Malta had taken place on the 1st Nov., and that there had been a considerable accession to the congregation.

The Bishop added ;

“There is one point on which I have to make a request to the Society. We have here two good libraries for secular purposes, but none for religious books ; and in order to provide for this, I have applied for and obtained a grant of books from Dr. Bray’s Associates, who have been most kind and liberal to us in this matter. But the Society will further help us if you will make us a grant from the fund of Clericus of a copy of each of its publications, excepting mere school-books, but including the supplemental catalogue. As we are a garrison city, and the books will be accessible to the military as well as civilians, it appears to me that we shall strictly come within the scope of the fund.

“With regard to Gibraltar, I trust that the board will kindly make a grant, as it did last year, to the Committee. I have not been able to pay a visit to that city during the present year ; but I understand from the Archdeacon that the school keeps up its numbers and its usefulness. It consists of a hundred and fifty children, chiefly of Roman Catholic parents, who are not unwilling to receive an education at our hands. The girls’ schools are supported by local subscriptions ; but we have no local resources for these, and we must depend for their present support on the Society’s aid.

The Board agreed, at the General Meeting in December, to place two hundred pounds at the Bishop’s disposal for the purposes of the schools and the Spanish congregation in Gibraltar, for the year ensuing.

A complete set of the Books and Tracts on the Permanent Catalogue, and a set of those works on the Supplemental Catalogue which have been published under the direction of the Committee of General Literature and Education, were granted at the same meeting from the fund of Clericus, towards augmenting the libraries in Malta.

At the Meeting of the Board in July, it was agreed, that 150*l.* be placed at the disposal of the Bishop, towards the support of the schools and the Spanish congregation at Gibraltar, for the year 1846.

The Bishop, who was in the Chair at that Meeting, acknowledged the grant.

His Lordship having requested means from the Board towards the cost of printing, at Malta, a translation of the life of Bishop Ridley, from Hone’s “Lives of Eminent Christians,” into the Maltese language, the Board acceded to his request.

JERUSALEM.

A COMMUNICATION was read at the January Meeting from the Bishop of the English Church in Jerusalem, acknowledging a grant of books recently made by the Board, and inclosing the proceeds of the sale of some of these; a depository having been opened, under the Bishop's superintendence, in the most conspicuous part of Jerusalem, for the sale and general distribution of the Holy Scriptures, Prayer-Books, and the Society's publications.

The Bishop said;

"Although the sum is small, it is highly encouraging, when the extreme poverty of this place is considered, which is also generally the character of the pilgrims who visit the holy city. Besides the books sold, a considerable number of copies have been gratuitously distributed, which will be carried by the pilgrims to various parts of the world. The opening of the depôt has been found useful, not only for the circulation of the Holy Scriptures, &c., but it has also afforded an opportunity to the keeper of the depository—a converted Israelite, who speaks several languages—and to the missionaries stationed here, to converse with those who have visited it, on the great truths of our holy religion, and we have every reason to hope a blessing has attended it.

"I shall feel particularly thankful to the Society for a few copies of the versions in the Oriental languages, particularly for some Turkish and Armenian Prayer-Books. But we have opportunities here of circulating Bibles and Prayer-Books in almost every language, as we have pilgrims and other travellers from almost every part of the world, many of whom attach a peculiar interest and value to a sacred book obtained in the holy city.

"I have it in contemplation shortly to visit Alexandria and Cairo, which I have long desired to do, and was lately actually on the point of starting, when I was prevented by domestic illness, &c. Being in friendly correspondence with the patriarch of the Coptic Church, I expect, under the Divine blessing, good will result from such a visit. Having now nearly completed the third year of our residence in this wonderful but desolate country and city, I feel more than ever convinced that there is, in every sense of the word, a wide door and effectual open to us."

It was agreed to grant such books as would be useful to the Bishop, to the value of 10*l*.

The Bishop having requested copies of the Common Prayer-Book in German, for the use of persons attending the public German Service, which is held in the Church at Jerusalem every Sunday afternoon, the Board agreed, at the instance of the Foreign Translation Committee, to place some copies at his Lordship's disposal.

TURKEY.

THE Rev. M. Vicars, in a letter dated Bagdad, applied for a grant of Bibles, Prayer-Books, Tracts, and elementary books of education for the use of the English residents and sailors in that city, and for some of the natives who are desirous of learning the English language. He said;

“The Persian princes who visited England about ten years ago, and many of their relations who have taken refuge in Bagdad, are extremely anxious to learn English.”

Books and Tracts were granted from both the catalogues to the value of 20*l*.

CHINA.

THE Secretaries informed the Board, at the General Meeting in February, that the Standing Committee had, on the application of the Rev. Vincent Stanton, authorized him to draw for 250*l*. towards the erection of a church at Hong-Kong, from the fund granted in June 1843, by the Board, towards promoting the Society's objects in China.

It appeared that the site of a new Church at Hong-Kong had been fixed; that Mr. Stanton had, with much difficulty, collected upwards of 2000*l*. towards the building; and that the government would be prepared to render effectual aid. After the efforts made among the members of the Church in China, further assistance was anxiously looked for from England.

A favourable opportunity having occurred of sending School-books and materials for school-keeping to Hong-Kong, a supply of these was forwarded thither, to the amount of 33*l*., from the balance of the fund voted in 1843.

FRANCE, &c.

IT was stated in the last Annual Report, that during the progress of the works on the Paris and Rouen railway, the English contractors had placed the religious instruction of their workmen under the superintendence of the Right Rev. Bishop Luscombe. The Bishop accordingly appointed a Catechist to go over the whole line at stated periods, visiting the families, instructing the children, and assembling the people in the evenings, and on Sundays, for religious exercises.

National Schools having been established on the railway stations between Rouen and Havre, books for the use of the children were granted on the Bishop's application.

A set of quarto books has been granted for the performance of Divine Service in the British Episcopal Chapel at Danzig, and Prayer-Books for the use of the sailors were also granted to the value of 8*l*.

Prayer-Books, of different sizes, have been granted, on the application of Mr. Brackenbury, British Consul at Cadiz, for the use of some poor English families employed in a pottery about two miles from Seville.

Books have been voted towards forming a Lending Library at Pisa, on the application of the Rev. C. Woodcock.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

THE Society has had much satisfaction in receiving copies of the reports of the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

THE outline which has been thus given of the proceedings of the Society during the past year, will be sufficient to show the extensiveness of the field in which it is employed for the advancement of Christian truth, and for the true interests and happiness of mankind.

A comparison of this Report with the statements of former years will tend to prove that the sphere of the Society's operations is continually increasing. More frequent applications are made from the poor and populous districts of our own country for Bibles and Common Prayer-Books, as well as for books and tracts suitable to the various conditions of life, and especially to the poorer classes. The Society also does much in the British colonies, not only by large supplies of books, as occasion requires, but also of pecuniary grants towards the erection of churches, the building and endowment of colleges, and other good designs commended to its consideration and care, by the Colonial Prelates. No fewer than eighteen Bishops now preside over the scattered members of our Church in remote parts of the world; and while, on the one hand, increased exertions are making in the colonies for the supply of their own spiritual wants, the more regularly organized state of the Church occasions a larger demand for aid from the friends of Religion at home.

The many important objects by which the Society endeavours to promote Christian Knowledge claim for it a liberal measure of support. And as the institution is found to be capable of greater efforts, it is to be hoped that its members will endeavour to add to its revenues, by making known more generally its objects and its claims. They will thus increase its power of doing good, and of diffusing far and wide, under the Divine blessing, the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ.

END OF THE REPORT.

APPENDIX, N^o. I.

REPORT OF THE FOREIGN TRANSLATION COMMITTEE, FOR THE YEAR 1845.

Read and Adopted at the General Meeting, Tuesday, July 1, 1845.

THE FOREIGN TRANSLATION COMMITTEE, in presenting to the Board their Annual Report, have the satisfaction of feeling that, during the past year, although they have in one or two instances met with some difficulty and disappointment, their operations have been, upon the whole, both important and successful.

It was stated, in their Report for last year, that the translation of the Liturgy into German was nearly completed. A small impression was published in the autumn, copies of which were distributed in various quarters, with the view of obtaining corrections and remarks from persons qualified to examine them critically. The translation was further tested, by being immediately taken into use by the German congregation, which had just commenced assembling every Sunday for public worship, in the Mariners' Church at Hull. Several typographical errors were thus detected, and a few alterations suggested, some of which were, on consideration, adopted. A revised edition, of only two hundred and fifty copies, was issued early in the present year, by means of the circulation of which some further improvements have been effected; and, as the version is presumed to be at length in a satisfactory state, a larger impression of a thousand copies is now printing.

Having alluded to the use already made of this version of the Liturgy, the Committee think it will not be deemed irrelevant to the subject of this Report to mention, that the German Service, according to the rite of the Church of England, established last summer at Hull, owes its origin to the interest taken by the Clergy and Laity of that town, in the spiritual welfare of the foreign sailors, who, to the number of about nine thousand annually, frequent their port; and that the sovereigns of Prussia, Hanover, and Denmark, and the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, together with the senates of Hamburg, Bremen, and Lubeck, have contributed liberally to its support. With regard to the congregation itself, its excellent Minister, the Rev. Theodor Müller, to whom the Committee are indebted for several valuable suggestions for the improvement of the German version of the Prayer-Book, reports that they assemble regularly, to the number of from one hundred to one hundred and fifty, every Sunday; that he has never observed one single act of impropriety or unseemly behaviour in any of the sailors; but that, on the contrary, they pay the greatest attention to every part of the service, appearing to be particularly interested in those portions of the Liturgy in which the congregation join, and making a point of repeating the responses with an audible voice.

The Committee have further to state that, at the request of Bishop Alexander, a supply of German Prayer-Books has been sent to Jerusalem, and that copies have also been forwarded to Germany, on the application of the English Chaplains at Mayence, Heidelberg, and Kissingen.

The Portuguese version of the Liturgy is in type, as far as to the beginning of the Psalms. The labours of the Committee in this work have been impeded, partly by delay in the transmission of proofs, and in correspondence with Portugal and Madeira; but chiefly by an interruption which has occurred in the printing of a new and revised edition of Pereira's version of the Bible at Lisbon. The Committee were anxious to avail themselves of the best edition they could procure of this translation, both as it is the received version of the Scriptures in Portugal and its dependences, and as it is the work of a confessedly learned man, held in high estimation among his countrymen. In the portions of Scripture contained in the Liturgy, the Committee judge it to be inexpedient, if not presumptuous, to deviate from so popular a version of the Bible, so long as it gives the sense of Holy Scripture as presented in the English Prayer-Book.

The Maltese version of the Liturgy is reported by the Bishop of Gibraltar to be completed and printed, as far as to the end of the Communion Service; and the Bishop states that, from observations which he has been able to make, he has every reason to hope that this work will prove both acceptable and useful. Considerable difficulties have occurred in preparing this version, in consequence of the anomalous state of the Maltese, as a written language. But, by the adoption of a system of orthography which has been found the most simple and efficacious in teaching the language in the English school, these difficulties have been successfully overcome.

The printing of the New Testament in Maltese will shortly commence, the Gospels and Acts being already revised for publication, and those portions of the Epistles, which were required for insertion in the Liturgy, being so much accomplished towards the completion of the Version.

More than ordinary pains have been bestowed on the revision of the French version of the Liturgy, which, it is hoped, will now at length be a complete and fair representation, as nearly at least as the great dissimilarity of the languages will admit, of the English Book of Common Prayer. The revision is now all but finished, and the greater portion of the book printed; and it is expected that it will be published before the end of the summer, and in time for the consecration and opening for public worship of the new French Protestant Episcopal Church of the Metropolis.

The printing of the new French version of the Old Testament at Paris has proceeded nearly to the end of the historical books. This, it will be remembered, is a quarto edition, with marginal references. The octavo edition, also with marginal references, printing in London, is advanced to the beginning of the book of Job.

The revision of the modern Armenian translation of the Liturgy at Constantinople, although not suspended, has been much retarded by the absence of the highly-valued and efficient superintendent of that difficult work ; the Rev. Horatio Southgate having been summoned, during the autumn of last year, to New York, on business connected with his mission. But he has now returned to Constantinople in the more important character of a Missionary Bishop ; and, on his way through London, he expressed his intention of devoting himself again to the task of completing the revision of this version, to the publication of which he eagerly looked forward, as a very material aid towards the furtherance of the objects of his mission in the East.

Although means were adopted last year to accelerate the printing of the Coptic and Arabic Gospels, the progress made as yet has not been such as was anticipated. The Arabic translation of the Coptic text requires a very careful revision, and hence, necessarily, considerable delay is occasioned.

Indeed, it is found by the Committee, that wherever they have to deal with the Arabic language, they have great difficulties to encounter. It is in reference to Arabic versions in particular, that, in the commencement of this Report, the Committee have alluded to discouragements and disappointments. They hoped they had made satisfactory arrangements for the revision of the Arabic Liturgy, and the compiling and publishing of a complete edition of the Holy Scriptures in Arabic, at Malta. But such difficulties have arisen, both from the different modes of expression adopted, and the different impressions derived from habitual associations of ideas in the minds of Christians and Mahomedans respectively, and also from the character and views of the Orientals, who must necessarily be employed in works of this nature, that, despairing of accomplishing, by the means at present at their command, any thing upon which they could confidently rely, as being correct in translation and appropriate in style, they have suspended their operations with regard to Arabic versions at Malta, and have resolved to transfer the execution of these works to England. Experience proves that, in all Oriental versions, the labours of well-educated natives are indispensable ; but that the final revision and the correcting of the press can be entrusted only to European scholars. With the view, then, to a satisfactory accomplishment of these Arabic versions, the Committee have determined to bring to England Mr. Fares, who is represented as being the best Arabic scholar in the East, to be employed by them, under the immediate superintendence of Professor Lee, at whose suggestion this plan was first adopted, and who has kindly offered to devote himself to the work. Dr. Lee will be assisted, in his supervision of the versions, by Dr. Mill and Mr. Cureton.

The Committee contemplate adopting a similar course with regard to the printing of the Syro-Chaldaic versions of the Scriptures and Liturgy, for which they have already a considerable mass of materials prepared.

At the request of the Bishop of New Zealand, the Committee have undertaken to publish a version of the Liturgy in the New Zealand language, prepared for the press by a syndicate of translators under the Bishop's direction.

They have also been solicited to print a translation of the Prayer-

Book into the language of the Ogybwa Indians, prepared by the Rev. Frederick A. O'Meara, who has been labouring for some years, with no little success, as a Missionary among that interesting tribe.

Mr. O'Meara, writing from his mission on Lake Huron, states, that "among the Indians speaking the Ogybwa language, who occupy a considerable portion of British North America, and also are to be found in the United States, there are five missionary stations belonging to our Church." He informs the Committee, that "the Toronto Church Society bore the expense of printing a translation of the 'Faith and Duty of a Christian,' and that he is now experiencing the beneficial results of such an admirable compilation of Scripture passages being in the hands of his people; not only the young, but the old too, being desirous of committing the texts to memory." It appears that Mr. O'Meara has been using his translation of the Liturgy, in manuscript, for the last four years in his public ministrations; "but," he writes, "the book not being in the hands of my people, more than half the benefit of that first of all human compositions has been lost to them; but were it printed, it would be a powerful auxiliary, not only to my own labours in the extended mission under my charge, but to others who are labouring among the same tribe; and I have it from the mouth of a zealous and active Bishop of the sister Church in the United States, that it would be joyfully received by her for the use of her missions among the same people; and further, I am persuaded it would do much to enlighten many of these children of the forest who have fallen into the arms of Rome, or dissent, as to the scriptural nature of our Church."

The Committee have agreed to adopt and publish this translation of the Liturgy, if they find that the Bishop of Toronto, to whom they have applied for advice on the subject, recommends their undertaking it.

The communications of the Committee with India during the past year have been both frequent and interesting.

It will, no doubt, be in the recollection of the Board, that in their last report the Committee stated, that, at the suggestion of the Bishop of Bombay, they had undertaken to assist in the completion of a translation of the Liturgy into Goojerattee, and they added a passage from a letter received from the Bishop, in which he said that he should be "happy to recommend this branch of the SOCIETY'S proceedings to the support of the friends of the Missionary cause in that diocese." It is with much satisfaction that the Committee have now to announce, that the Bishop has appointed a special Committee at Bombay, for the purpose of preparing translations of the Scriptures and Liturgy in the vernacular languages of Western India. This Committee held their first meeting on the 27th of March last, the Bishop himself presiding. At that meeting the concluding portion of a translation of the Old Testament into the Mahratta language, by the Rev. J. Dickson, of the Church Mission, was laid before them, and the Committee resolved to solicit the aid of the Foreign Translation Committee of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge in the revision for the press and the publication of this work. To this request the Foreign Translation Committee have gladly acceded.

Portions of the Holy Scriptures, it appears, in the Mahratta language, have been for some time in circulation in that part of India; and the Rev. George Pigott, the Secretary to the Bombay Translation Committee, mentions in particular, a translation of the Psalms by the Rev. P. Farrer, as being in daily use among the Jews at Bombay, whom Mr. Pigott describes as a very interesting portion of the native community. From another quarter also further information has been obtained by the Committee respecting this people. They are said to have been established in that part of India from time immemorial, and to have been found, when they first attracted the notice of European settlers, to have had no communication, which they could record, with any of their race dispersed in other quarters of the globe. It is stated, that they possessed none of the prophetic books of the Old Testament, and were ignorant of the history of their people subsequent to the first captivity; that they did not keep the Feast of Purim, and had never even heard of the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. It has been observed also, that none of them bear any of the names peculiar to the Tribes of Judah and Benjamin, and so common among the Jews after their return from Babylon. They call themselves "Beni Israël," and are known under that appellation among their Mahratta neighbours; they dislike being called "Yahoodi" (Jews), the common name of the Hebrew race in the East, and they disclaim all connexion, except that of community of faith, both with the black Jews of Malabar and their fair brethren of Arabia and Persia. They are described as retaining the marked features of their race, and as being distinguished from the Hindoo and Mahomedan natives by superior intelligence, and an integrity of character, recommending them, not unfrequently, to offices of trust and responsibility, particularly in the army, where they are generally marked as among the best soldiers in their respective regiments, and often rise to be native officers. The Committee are informed, that these Jews have almost entirely lost the knowledge of their original language, for, although they repeat their prayers in Hebrew, very few of them can understand the words they use; but Mr. Pigott observes, that "there has been a marked improvement among them, since they became acquainted with parts of their own Scriptures, through the Mahratta translations."

It appears from Mr. Pigott's communications, that very judicious arrangements have been made, by the Bombay Translation Committee, for a thorough revision of the Mahratta translation of the Liturgy. The Foreign Translation Committee have suggested to them one or two manifest improvements upon the existing work, and have promised to assist in the publication of a revised edition as soon as it is called for.

It will readily be believed that the communications of the Committee with Southern India have of late been peculiarly interesting. The Committee have received much valuable information on the subject of translations in the languages of Southern India, from the Rev. Vincent Shortland, the able and zealous Secretary of the District

Committee of the Society at Madras. Several translations of various parts of the Bible, and of the Book of Common Prayer, have at different times been published at Madras, at the expense, or with the assistance, of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. Of these, Mr. Shortland has transmitted an elaborate catalogue, observing, at the same time, that they all, more or less, require correction. The late extraordinary movement in the Tinnevely district had occasioned a large demand for copies of the Tamil Prayer-Book in particular; and this version having undergone a thorough revision, by a Committee of the Missionaries of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and of the Church Missionary Society, appointed by the Bishop of Madras, the Foreign Translation Committee, at the request of the Madras District Committee, have agreed to assist in the publication of a large impression of the work.

It would appear that there are symptoms of the movement, already alluded to, extending northward into the country where the Teloogoo language prevails; and Mr. Shortland states, that a version of the Liturgy in that language has been submitted to a Teloogoo Revision Committee. In the mean time, both the Revision Committee and the Press in Tinnevely are described as being in a state of great activity; and at such a crisis, when the Christian Missionaries in that quarter, who may be said to have sown so long and so indefatigably, even in tears, have now, under God's blessing, a cheering prospect of being at length enabled to reap in joy—when we are informed that, in that field of the Society's earliest labours, nearly a hundred villages at once, and as with one accord, are casting away their idols, and with one voice demanding Christian instruction—and moreover, in disregard of their ancient prejudices and the distinctions of caste, are uniting in the formation of native associations for building churches—at such a crisis as this, the Committee feel it a privilege to be put in trust with the means (and they only regret that those means are not more ample) of aiding, with that kind of assistance which comes within their own peculiar sphere of action, those exertions for the conversion and instruction of the heathen, which He who alone can give the increase, seems now, of his gracious goodness, to be crowning with his blessing.

REPORT OF THE FOREIGN TRANSLATION COMMITTEE

RESPECTING THE SPANISH VERSION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

THE following Report of the Foreign Translation Committee was read to the Meeting in April.

The Foreign Translation Committee beg to present to the Board the following Report respecting the Spanish version of the New Testament.

The attention of the Committee was first called to the subject of versions of the Holy Scriptures in the Spanish language in the year 1835, by a Member of the Board (G. Rochfort Clarke, Esq.), who named to them the Rev. Andrew Cheap, of Knaresborough, as one who was fully qualified to give an opinion respecting the merits of the existing versions in that language. The Committee, in consequence, without delay, put themselves in communication with that gentleman, who informed them that the version of Don Felix Torres Amat, then Bishop of Astorga, which was made under the authority of Charles IV. and Ferdinand VII., was the best adapted for circulation in Spain; and that, on the whole, he was persuaded that there was no work better calculated, with God's blessing, to promote spiritual and moral good among the Spaniards, by whom it would be readily received.

The Secretary, not long afterwards, received a letter from the Rev. J. S. Pering, Chaplain to the Forces, and Secretary to the Gibraltar District Committee of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, in which he recommended to his notice the Rev. Lorenzo Lucena, formerly Theological Lecturer in the College at Cordova, in Spain, who had joined the communion of the Church of England at Gibraltar a few weeks before, and whom Mr. Pering stated to be a gentleman of considerable acquirements, and one who had left behind him at Gibraltar a very favourable impression of his character. The Committee also, shortly after, had laid before them a very strong testimonial from the College of San Pelagio at Cordova, as well as from the Examiner of the Bishop of the Diocese, both as to Mr. Lucena's character, and also as to his learning and attainments in Theology.

Upon consideration of these and other papers, Mr. Lucena was engaged by the Committee to carry through the press an edition of Bishop Torres Amat's version of the New Testament; and the following statement was made in the Report of the Foreign Translation Committee presented to the Board in July, 1836: "The state of the Spanish versions has also occupied much of the attention of the Committee; and they have agreed, after due consideration, to undertake a revision of the version of Bishop Torres Amat, omitting the notes and paraphrastic insertions, which it at present contains, and making other necessary corrections, to adapt it to the use of the Society. This version has already obtained considerable circulation in Spain, especially in the diocese of Astorga, of which the learned translator is now the bishop: and, besides its intrinsic merits, it has the additional recommendation of having been sanctioned by royal authority. The Committee have been efficiently assisted in the work of revision by the Rev. Lorenzo Lucena, formerly Lecturer in Divinity in the College of San Pelagio, at Cordova, who has recently abjured the errors of the Church of Rome, and conformed to the Church of England."

In the course of the same year the Committee received a still further testimony to Mr. Lucena's merits, in a private letter from a Spanish gentleman at Madrid, a copy of which was laid by the Secretary before the Committee, and in which it was stated that Mr. Lucena was a person of great reputation for ecclesiastical learning, and in every respect a man of worth.

The Report of the Committee for the year 1837 commences thus: "The Committee have the pleasure to lay before the Board a copy of the New Testament in Spanish, which they have adapted to the use of the Society, from the well-known version of Don Felix Torres Amat, the present Bishop of Astorga. Since their last Report it has been considered necessary that this version of the New Testament should undergo a second revision; and in passing through the press it has been carefully corrected by the Rev.* L. Lucena, who has so efficiently assisted them in the revision. In the progress of the work it was found necessary to make more extensive corrections than had been anticipated. But the Committee now venture to hope, that, being freed from most of its acknowledged defects, it will be found much more faithful and accurate; and that, the alloy being removed, the intrinsic merits and beauty of the translation will be rendered more apparent, and that it will become more acceptable to Spanish readers generally. They therefore humbly trust, that this first-fruit of their labours may thus contribute, under the Divine blessing, to promote the knowledge of the Word of God in a country where it is at present so little read."

The Committee offer these statements, as recorded in their Minutes and in their Annual Reports, with a view of recalling to the recollection of the Board the circumstances under which the publication of this translation was undertaken, and the care which it was their wish and endeavour to use, in the revision of the version adopted.

As this revision was conducted under the immediate superintendence of the Bishop of Gibraltar, then one of the Society's Secretaries, and with the occasional advice and assistance of the Gibraltar District Committee, the Foreign Translation Committee have thought it right to communicate with the Bishop on the subject, before making any Report to the Board. The Bishop, in his reply, states that Mr. Lucena's instructions were, to bring the version closer to the original, by leaving out interpolations and correcting obvious errors ; and the Committee have no reason to suppose that Mr. Lucena did not faithfully and efficiently perform his task, according to the instructions he received. The Bishop suggests, that whenever a new edition of this version is called for, it may perhaps with advantage be subjected to a yet further revision by Mr. Lucena, under the superintendence of Archdeacon Barrow, and expresses his own willingness to be referred to, on any questions that may arise in the progress of the work.

The Committee think it well further to remind the Board, that, as stated in their Report for 1843, upwards of 2500 copies of the Society's edition of this version have been sent, as favourable opportunities have offered, to Spain, Mexico, and South America. In their Report for 1839, the Committee made the following statement on the subject: "The Committee are happy to state that a satisfactory way has been opened to them for promoting the circulation of the New Testament, and also of the Liturgy, in the interior of Spain. They have already availed themselves of the opportunity thus afforded, by ordering a thousand copies of each to be sent to that country. . . . The Liturgy of the Church of England seems to be peculiarly acceptable to those Spaniards who have been enabled to shake off from their own minds the superstitions which at present darken the Church of their country, without throwing aside (as unhappily is too often the case) their attachment to the true Catholic Church, or the belief of Christianity itself. The Committee, therefore, look with increased satisfaction to this part of their operations ; and though a beginning only has been made, they cannot but hope that this attempt to promote Christian Knowledge, in its purest form, in Spain, will continue to prosper in the hands of the Society."

III. That the Prayers annexed to these Rules be read at every Meeting of the SOCIETY.

IV. That a General Meeting be holden at the SOCIETY's house on the first Tuesday in every month, except when such Tuesday shall fall upon a Holyday of the Church, for which an Epistle and Gospel are appointed in the Book of Common Prayer, and then upon the first Tuesday not such a Holyday ; and except the months of August and September ; at one o'clock.

V. That the presence of six Members at least be required to constitute a General Meeting.

VI. That at every Meeting one of the Bishops present be requested to take the chair ; or in their absence, one of the Archdeacons of the Diocese : but that, in case of their non-attendance, a Chairman be elected by the Meeting.

VII. That all questions brought forward at the General Meetings be determined by the votes of the Members present : and that, in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman have a second vote.

VIII. That at every General Meeting minutes of the proceedings be taken ; and that such minutes, with all references from intervening Committees, be read at the next General Meeting.

IX. That no motion be made to repeal, suspend, or alter any standing order ; to rescind any resolution of a General Meeting, or in any way to vary the rules or practice of the SOCIETY, unless notice of such motion shall have been given at the Monthly Meeting immediately preceding that at which the motion is to be made ; and that no meeting be competent to decide upon such motion, unless ten Members at least be present.

X. That no person be at liberty to take a copy of any minute of the proceedings of the SOCIETY, or of any letter or paper sent to the SOCIETY, without permission first obtained from a General Meeting, or from the Standing Committee.

XI. That no person be at liberty to publish, or to supply to any newspaper, or other periodical work, reports of any discussions which take place at the Meetings of the Board.

XII. That every person proposed as a Member of this SOCIETY be recommended by one Member, according to the following form :

" I, the undersigned, do recommend A. B. to be a Member of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, verily believing him to be a well-affected Member of the United Church of England and Ireland, as by law established; and disposed to aid the pious and charitable designs of the Society.

" Dated this day of , 18

" (Signed)

" Subscribing Member."

XIII. That the names of all persons so recommended, together with those of the persons recommending, be read by the Secretary at the first Monthly Meeting after the recommendations have been received; and that the election take place at the next Monthly Meeting; a list of the names having, during the interval, been hanging up in some conspicuous part of the SOCIETY's office.

XIV. That such elections be made by ballot; and that if one-fifth part of the Members voting be dissentient, there be no election.

XV. That Members of the Royal Family, Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, and Bishops of the Scottish Episcopal Church, upon signifying their desire to become Members of this SOCIETY, be admitted without the observance of the 12th, 13th, and 14th Rules.

XVI. That Ladies, whose names are transmitted by any Member or Subscriber, paying the usual subscription, be admitted as annual subscribers, without recommendation or ballot; and that they be entitled to all the privileges of subscribing Members with respect to applications for Books.

XVII. That each subscribing Member do pay annually a sum of not less than one guinea; and that all annual subscriptions be due on the first day of each year.

XVIII. That no person chosen to be a subscribing Member be entitled to act as such till he shall have paid his subscription for the current year.

XIX. That a sum of not less than twenty pounds may be given at any one time in lieu of future subscriptions, or that the said sum of twenty pounds may be paid at different times within a period of four years.

XX. That parochial clergymen with small incomes, having been elected Members of the SOCIETY, and specially recommended by the Diocesan, be exempt from the payment of annual subscriptions, and be considered as corresponding Members.

XXI. That this SOCIETY do supply its Members with Bibles, New Testaments, Common Prayer Books, and religious Tracts, at such reduced prices as shall be from time to time set forth in its Catalogue.

XXII. That applications for books on the terms of the SOCIETY, be made to one of the Secretaries, by Members or annual Subscribers, in the following form :—

“Sir,
“I request the following Books, on the terms of the Society, agreeably to Rule XXIII.”

XXIII. That Members be at liberty to apply for Books at Non-Members' price for any purpose; but that no Member be at liberty to apply for Books on the terms of the SOCIETY, except for his own use and distribution, or for sale to the poor, or for the use of charitable institutions with which he is locally or parochially connected; and that a copy of this Rule be annexed to the printed form of application for Books.

XXIV. That payment for all Books supplied by the SOCIETY, be due within three months after delivery; and that no Member be entitled to make a fresh application, whose account shall be unpaid for a further period of three months, or whose subscription shall be two years in arrear; and that a copy of this Rule shall be annexed to every bill for Books.

XXV. That the Correspondence of the SOCIETY be referred to a Standing Committee chosen out of the subscribing Members, with power to despatch all business not reserved to the General Meeting by the Standing Orders, and to call Special General Meetings, as occasion may require.

XXVI. That their Lordships the Bishops be ex-officio Members of the Standing Committee.

XXVII. That the following form, to be signed by three Members at least, be used in recommending Books and Papers to be placed on the SOCIETY's Catalogue :—

“We, the undersigned, having read, and carefully considered
(Signed) “A. B.”

XXVIII. That every book or paper so recommended be referred to a Tract Committee, appointed annually by the Board, consisting of seven Members of the SOCIETY.

XXIX. That the Standing Committee shall propose to the Board, at the General Meeting in April, a list of seven Members of the SOCIETY, to form the Tract Committee for the year ensuing: that at that meeting any Member be at liberty to propose another list of seven Members of the SOCIETY, instead of that proposed by the Standing Committee; and that the election of the Tract Committee take place at the General Meeting in May.

XXX. That His Grace the President have the power to appoint a Committee of Reference for Books and Tracts, consisting of five of the Bishops.

XXXI. That the Tract Committee be empowered to place upon the SOCIETY's Catalogue any Book or Tract which shall have been approved by them, and shall afterwards have received the sanction of the Episcopal Referees.

XXXII. That all subjects of doubt or difficulty arising in the Tract Committee be referred to the Episcopal Referees, whose decision shall be final.

XXXIII. That District Committees of this SOCIETY, established for the purpose of furthering its designs, be subject to such regulations as may be made from time to time by the General Meeting.

XXXIV. That the accounts of the SOCIETY be referred annually to a Committee of Auditors, appointed at the Monthly Meeting in March, who shall examine them, and make a Report thereupon to the Meeting in the May following.

XXXV. That the receipts and payments of the SOCIETY be managed by the Treasurers; and that the funded property of the SOCIETY do stand in their names.

XXXVI. That the Secretaries keep minutes of all the proceedings of the SOCIETY and Committees, and a register of all letters to and from the SOCIETY, and copies of the most important.

XXXVII. That they lay before the Chairman at every General Meeting a statement of the business to be done, including all matters left undetermined at the preceding General Meeting, and that the same practice be observed with regard to all meetings of Committees.

XXXVIII. That all orders of the SOCIETY for Books to be issued to Members be signed by one of the Secretaries.

XXXIX. That the Secretaries send the following notice to all newly-elected Members, together with a copy of the 17th, 18th, and 19th Rules, relating to Subscriptions, and of the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, and 24th Rules, relating to Books.

"Sir,

"We have the pleasure of informing you, that you are elected
 "a subscribing Member of the Society for Promoting Christian
 "Knowledge. You will readily understand, from the Annual Re"port, the designs of the Society, who desire all their Members to "join with them in prayers for the Divine blessing on their endea-
 "vours to advance the glory of God and the good of mankind.

} Joint Secretaries."

XL. That the Secretaries prepare an Annual Report of the principal transactions of the SOCIETY during the preceding year, to be laid before the General Meeting in October.

XLI. That attendance be given in the Office daily from ten till four.

XLII. That the business of the Office be under the superintendence of the Treasurers and Secretaries.

COLLECTS

TO BE USED BY THE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE,
BEFORE THEY COMMENCE BUSINESS.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour; and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all works of piety and charity do proceed, we beseech Thee to visit with Thy favour our Sovereign Lady Queen VICTORIA, and so rule her heart that she may in all things seek Thy honour and glory. Prosper with Thy blessing the designs of this Society. Comfort with Thy grace those benefactors who contribute to its support. Bless the ministry of Thy servants, the Clergy; the endeavours of all who are engaged in spreading the knowledge of true religion in this kingdom, and the labours of those Missionaries, who are promoting the same in foreign parts. And may Thy Holy Spirit direct all our consultations to the advancement of Thy glory, and the good of Thy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that Thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men: particularly for that providential support by which this Society hath been enabled to spread abroad the knowledge of Thy sacred truth. But, above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by Thy blessed Son; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory, which Thou hast given us in the same our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

WHEN BUSINESS IS ENDED.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

DISTRICT COMMITTEES

OF THE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

OBJECT.

THE object of District Committees is to promote the interests and usefulness of the Parent Society; by increasing its funds; by enlarging the sphere of its operations; by facilitating its communications with Members resident in the country; and by affording to the districts in which Committees are established a more easy and extensive supply of its publications.

RULES.

1. Four or more subscribing or corresponding Members of the SOCIETY are empowered to form themselves into a District Committee with the consent of the Diocesan, regard being had, wherever it is practicable, to the ecclesiastical divisions of Dioceses, Archdeaconries, and Deaneries; and every Member of the Parent Society residing in the District shall be a Member of such Committee.
2. District Committees, if they deem it expedient, may admit members of the United Church of England and Ireland, and of the Episcopal Church of Scotland, subscribing not less than half-a-guinea annually to the funds of such Committees, to participate in the administration of their local concerns.
3. The President, Vice-President, and Secretaries of District Committees shall be chosen from those persons who are already Members of the Parent Society, or are desirous of becoming so.
4. District Committees shall receive, and remit without delay, benefactions, annual subscriptions, and other contributions on account of the Parent Society; and their Treasurers and Secretaries are authorized to give receipts for the same.

5. District Committees are also authorized to receive subscriptions or contributions to any amount, to be applied to the use of their respective districts, in conformity with the designs of the Parent Society.
 6. District Committees may be supplied with books on the same terms as members of the Parent Society.
 7. Members of the Parent Society, residing within the limits of a District Committee, may obtain books from such Committee, under the same regulations and at the same prices as from the Parent Society, with the addition only of such a per-centage for carriage as the Committee may fix.
 8. District Committees may also dispose of their books to local Subscribers, or to any other person, upon such terms as may be deemed expedient by each Committee.
 9. Payment for all books supplied to District Committees shall be due within six months after delivery; and no Committee shall be entitled to make a fresh application whose account shall be unpaid for a further period of six months.
 10. No books or tracts shall be circulated by District Committees, but such as are on the Catalogues of the Parent Society.
 11. Parochial Clergymen making pecuniary collections for the use of their respective parishes may obtain books at Members' prices, to the whole amount of such collection, either from the Parent Society, or from the District Committee.
 12. District Committees shall assemble quarterly, if possible, and if not, at least twice in every year; and at one of these meetings a Report shall be made of their last year's proceedings.
 13. District Committees shall keep their accounts in a form provided by the Parent Society; and such accounts, after having been audited by two of their members, annually appointed for that purpose, shall be laid before the Committee at the anniversary meeting.
 14. District Committees shall transmit an annual Report of their proceedings, together with a summary statement of their accounts, to the Bishop of the Diocese, and to the Parent Society.

The foregoing rules have reference simply to the benefit of those districts in which Committees are established, and none whatever to the increase of the Society's means: it is confidently hoped, that all District Committees, while they avail themselves of the advantages thus offered to them, will keep in view the important object of contributing to the general funds of the Parent Society, and thereby enabling it to assist poorer districts at home, and maintain and extend its operations abroad.

* * * The Board have determined that in future the 9th Rule shall be strictly enforced.

FOREIGN DISTRICT COMMITTEES

OF THE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

OBJECT.

THE object of Foreign Committees is to collect and transmit information respecting the best means of Promoting Christian Knowledge in their respective districts; to establish, enlarge, or superintend schools; to supply settlers and natives with the books circulated by the SOCIETY; to promote translations, when necessary, into the language of the country; and lastly, to make collections in aid of the SOCIETY'S Funds.

RULES.

1. The general Rules and Orders of the SOCIETY and the Rules for District Committees shall in all cases apply to the regulation of Foreign Committees, except where the contrary is hereinafter provided.
2. Two or more subscribing or corresponding Members of the Parent Society, residing in any British Settlement or Colony, may, with the consent of the Bishop or Ordinary, form themselves into a District Committee for such Settlement, and all other Members of the SOCIETY residing in such Districts shall be Members of the Committee.
3. Members of the Parent Society residing within the limits of any Foreign Committee, may transfer their Annual Subscriptions due to the SOCIETY to the funds of such Committee, and be supplied with books by the Committee at members' prices, with the addition only of such a per-centage for carriage as the Committee may fix.
4. Foreign Committees shall be supplied with books at members' prices.
5. Foreign Committees shall have power to make local regulations not contrary to the foregoing rules.

FOR THE
FORMATION AND MANAGEMENT OF
PAROCHIAL LENDING LIBRARIES,
UNDER THE SANCTION OF THE
SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

I. EVERY Parochial Lending Library, established under the sanction of the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE, shall consist exclusively of the Books and Tracts on the SOCIETY'S permanent, supplemental, and occasional Catalogues.

II. When it is determined to establish a Lending Library in any Parish, the Minister of that Parish, being a member of the SOCIETY, shall be entitled, upon application to the Board in London, or to the District Committee within whose limits his parish is situated, to obtain such Books and Tracts as he may think fit, on the terms of the SOCIETY, and to pay for the same from his own or from any other funds.

III. When it appears that the establishment of a Parochial Lending Library would be desirable, and that the Parish is not able to defray the whole expense, even on the reduced terms of the SOCIETY, aid shall be granted at the discretion of the Board.

IV. All applications for such aid shall set forth the population, and other peculiar circumstances of the Parish; and shall be forwarded through the Bishop of the Diocese, the Archdeacon, or the District Committee.

V. Every such Parochial Lending Library shall be under the sole control of the Minister of the Parish, subject only to the following Rules and Regulations; and to the forfeiture of the SOCIETY'S grant upon the introduction of any Book or Tract not on the SOCIETY'S Catalogues.

VI. The Books shall be kept in some particular room, or part of a room, by themselves; and a Catalogue of each Library shall be kept with the Books.

VII. A register shall be kept with a page appropriated to each volume in the Library, and ruled in such manner as to show, in one line, to whom, and on what day, the volume was lent, and on what day returned; and such register shall be provided by the SOCIETY, and shall contain a printed copy of these Rules.

VIII. The Books and Tracts shall be arranged in volumes, at the discretion of each applicant, and be uniformly bound in calf.

IX. The following Rules, for the conservation of the Books, shall be printed and bound up with every volume.

PAROCHIAL LENDING LIBRARY,

UNDER THE SANCTION OF THE

SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

In the Parish of

In the Diocese of

1. This Library is under the immediate direction of the Minister of the Parish; the times of attendance for issuing and receiving Books will be fixed at his discretion; and he may make any regulations, for the management of the Library, which are not inconsistent with the Rules laid down by the SOCIETY.
2. Each Volume shall be returned by the borrower within fourteen days, but may be re-issued to him at the discretion of the Minister.
3. No Volume shall be transferred from family to family, nor shall any family, except under special circumstances, have more than one book at a time.
4. No Book shall be alienable under any circumstances whatever; and every fresh application for Books shall be accompanied by a report of such as are become unserviceable.
5. No Books shall be admitted into this Parochial Lending Library, without containing these Rules in the inside, and bearing the SOCIETY'S stamp on the cover.

X. When a parish which has received a Lending Library is within a District in which a District Committee is established, an annual return is to be made to such Committee of the number and state of the Books; and to be transmitted to the Board in London by the Committee in their Annual Report.

XI. When such a parish does not lie within a District in which a District Committee is established, the return is to be made directly to the Board.

* * In consequence of some misapprehension on the subject of the 5th Rule, the SOCIETY find it expedient to declare, that the sole object of this regulation is to prevent the circulation, under the supposed authority of the Society, of any Books or Tracts, not on its Catalogues.

NATIONAL SCHOOL LENDING LIBRARIES.

THE following RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD, respecting Lending Libraries for National Schools, was agreed to at the General Meeting held on the 5th of June, 1832.

“That a grant of Books from the SOCIETY'S Permanent Catalogue, to an amount not exceeding Five Pounds, at the cost price, be made to any such Schools in union with the National Society as shall apply for the same, provided that books to an equal or greater amount be added to them, at their own expense, from the SOCIETY'S Catalogues.”
